Last in the Windy City for February's NITRO event "The Ice Ball", Junior packed the sizeable Circuit Night Club and took command of the dance floor, unleashing a night of hard and powerful beats. Now the indisputable legend promises another explosive night of hypnotic vibes - complimented by Halsted's largest dance floor.

Circuit Night Club is located at 3641 N. Halsted. For more information visit www.circuitclub.com

Admission to the September 22nd event featuring DJ Junior Vasquez is $20 at the door, advance tickets available at Universal Gear, Borderline Music (cash only), Beatnix and Mephisto Leathers are $10.

Advance tickets are also available online at www.wantickets.com

About Junior Vasquez - After the Paradise Garage and The Saint both closed in the 80's, Junior emerged as the singularly most admired and followed DJ in New York City and later, the world. Throughout his career, he has transformed countless songs into dance floor anthems while working with the biggest names in show business, including Michael Jackson, Madonna, Christina Aguilera, Britney Spears, Beyonce, Cher Elton John and Justin Timberlake.

About Pink Party - From 6:30pm-11:30pm, The Associate board and Troy Hilbrands are hosting the Pink Party at the trendy MCA Warehouse, a benefit for the Center on Halsted. The party has been growing for three years and is a celebration of the end of summer in a casual lounge atmosphere. All proceeds directly benefit the programs of the Center on Halsted. Free shuttles will be running to the Official Pink Party after-hours event at Circuit Night Club.

About Circuit Night Club - March of '07 marked the 10th anniversary of Circuit Night Club, the largest dance club in Boystown. Circuit is committed to the GLBT community and fosters a diverse and inclusive atmosphere where all people, regardless of orientation, feel welcome. Circuit was named #1 by the voters of AOL CityGuide's CITY'S BEST 2006 and 2007 program.
