

NITRO Takes You "Under the Sea"

Chicago's Monthly Theme Event featuring Internationally Renowned Producer/DJ Junior Vasquez

Chicago, IL - 2008 marks the 25th Anniversary of Junior Vasquez's career as disc jockey, music producer, songwriter, remixer and sound designer. A pioneer in each discipline and tireless in his pursuits, the span of Junior's career is etched by landmark achievements in American popular music. New York's famed Sound Factory nightclub, which Junior co-founded, marked the first of many milestones that he is continuing to mark in his illustrious and unstoppable career. Junior went on to hold some of the most coveted residencies in New York and hosted most of the legendary parties at New York hotspots including: the Tunnel, Arena at the Palladium, Juniorverse at Twilo and Earth at Exit. Now, Junior returns to Chicago this month for NITRO's theme event UNDER THE SEA.

"VisuWil", a multi-talented company devoted to innovative and creative concepts, brings together fascinating elements for each monthly NITRO theme events. Will Harrison of VisuWil had this to say about the upcoming event "I've been looking forward to doing a water theme event and Under the Sea provides the best challenge for us to create sensations for all the senses."

ABSOLUT Global Cooling, a sponsor kicks off this month with "Every Sip Makes a Statement" promotion around Chicago and at NITRO.
