

Scott Free Video Debuts on Logo's Click List

Chicago, IL - Scott Free and His Closest Friends debuts at #6 on LOGO's Click List with their video 'Free' , and is the featured video on LOGOonline.com this week.

'Free' was shot at the 2007 Chicago's Pride March and Dyke March, and features appearances by Carrie Lydon, Kate Rickenbacker, Jenny Urban, Michael Grimes, Al Young, Lars Von Keitz, Rick Anton, Emily White, and the entire Chicago LGBT community.

Marching as a fife and drum group in American Revolution-era style, Scott Free 'Free' is a tribute to our community, and the social revolution that Gay Pride is. The song 'Free' is a Pride anthem, with lyrics about our struggle against hatred and our strength and determination to stand proud.

This is the first time that two Chicago artists have made the Click List in the same week, with Johnny Dangerous's 'Dirty Is The New Black' at #4.

Free a 2 time OUTMusic Award winner and two-time Stonewall Society Pride in the Arts Award winner released his latest CD "The Pink Album (A Pop Opera)" earlier this year. (Full Story)

The gay singer/songwriter hosts the annual AltQ LGBT folk music festival at the Old Town School of Folk Music in Chicago, and is the host and curator of 'Homolatte', the longest-running weekly queer performance series in the country.

View the video and vote online: The Click List on LOGO